

DC GIVEN Gathering Panel Speakers

December 7, 2019

Dr. Myma Albayda is an Assistant Professor of Medicine in the Division of Rheumatology at Johns Hopkins. She is the Director of the Rheumatology musculoskeletal ultrasound program, and has expertise in inflammatory joint and muscle diseases. She divides her time between seeing patients in clinic, educating trainees, and conducting research - all ways that God has called her to serve Him in her vocation as physician and scientist. A cradle Catholic, she is profoundly grateful for the gift that is the Church, for the friendship of the saints, and for the chance to walk daily with Christ.

Jennifer Gross is the Vice President of Administration for Susan B. Anthony List. She is a graduate of Framingham State University in Framingham, MA. Jennifer manages and executes the financial and legal policies of the organization. She is committed to the pro-life cause and is thrilled to be able to serve Susan B. Anthony List in this capacity. Prior to joining Susan B. Anthony List in 2008, she worked as a staff accountant for a CPA firm in northern Virginia. Jennifer and her husband Chris reside in Northern Virginia with their seven children.

Sr. Maria Mater Sanguinis Pretiosi, SSVM entered the convent of the Servidoras seven years ago after completing nursing school in her home state of Missouri. Following her years of formation she was missioned to Bridgeport, CT, where she cared for an elderly sister, taught catechism, worked with youth and instructed young adults and couples in Creighton Model's Fertility Care. For the past year she has been missioned at the Juniorate House of Studies preparing new Religious for their Missionaries Life as Spouses of Christ. Now Jesus has called her to the "Land of Many Waters," Guyana, South America to take up her next mission. She will join her sisters bringing with her passions for nursing, religious formation, mental and women's health care.